AHSOKA'S LIGHTSABER NOODLES

The weather is finally getting warmer, the twin suns on Tatooine are shining, and the water on Naboo is sparkling. With the kids out of school, this next craft is perfect for the entire family, and you will be able to enjoy these lightsaber pool noodles all year long. I have a special place in my heart for Ahsoka's green lightsabers, but I encourage you to get creative and make lightsabers for different characters and in various colors.

Remember, a Jedi uses the Force for knowledge and defense, never for attack. Beware of where you swing your lightsaber: Don't swing at anyone's head or with intention to harm.

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

- 1 green pool noodle
- Craft knife
- Scissors
- Metallic silver duct tape
- Black adhesive vinyl

TIP

You can find pool noodles year-round online.

Let's Craft!

1. Using the craft knife, cut a green pool noodle at  $\frac{1}{3}$  of the length. You should have two pieces, one about  $2\frac{1}{2}$  feet long and the other just less than 2 feet long.
2. Use the scissors to cut three pieces of metallic silver duct tape, each about 8 inches long. Wrap the tape horizontally around one pool noodle piece, starting at the bottom edge and overlapping the edges.
3. Cut a piece of black adhesive vinyl about  $\frac{1}{2}$  inch wide and 2 inches long. Stick it vertically on the wrapped silver tape, lined up to the top edge.
4. Cut a piece of black adhesive vinyl about  $\frac{3}{4}$  inch wide and 8 inches long. Wrap it around the hilt just above the bottom edge.
5. Cut a small circle from black adhesive vinyl, about  $\frac{1}{2}$  inch in diameter. Remove the backing and stick it just below the vertical black strip.
6. Repeat steps 2 through 5 for the other pool noodle piece.

Live your best Star Wars life, with this 12-month guide to party planning, crafting, and cooking inspired by a galaxy far, far away!

LOTH-CAT COOKIES

(GF, V) | Prep time: 20 minutes

Cooking time: 14 minutes | Yield: 12 cookies

Loth-cats may look adorable at first glance, but don't underestimate them—these feisty creatures are skilled at hunting down prey with their sharp teeth and claws. But, unlike loth-cats, these cookies are just as sweet as they appear, exploding with a vibrant burst of chocolatey flavor when you take a bite.

FOR THE COOKIE

12 ounces almond paste
½ cup granulated sugar
½ cup almond flour
¼ teaspoon cinnamon

1 large egg white
1 teaspoon vanilla extract

FOR THE DECORATION

4 ounces dark chocolate, chopped

1. Preheat the oven to 350°F. Prep baking sheets with parchment.
2. In the bowl of an electric mixer, stir together almond paste, sugar, almond flour, and cinnamon.
3. Stir in the egg white and vanilla.
4. Take 1 tablespoon of dough and form a flattened ball for the face. Place onto the prepped baking sheet. Then take another tablespoon of dough, divide it in half and create two ears, pointed at the ends. Place on top of the flattened ball of dough. Use the back of a knife's blade to create the line of the mouth.
5. Bake for 12 to 14 minutes, until lightly browned. Let cool on a wire rack.
6. Melt the chocolate in a double boiler. Use a small spoon to create the loth-cat markings on the ears, and to create the eyes.
7. When the chocolate has set, the cookies are ready to serve.
